

A close-up photograph of a fish's head, showing its eye, gills, and mouth. The fish has a reddish-brown patch on its face and a yellowish eye.

DID YOU KNOW?
93K tons of CORN,
47K tons of CORN gluten meal,
and 87K tons of DDGS are fed into
AQUACULTURE in the U.S.

90% of U.S. seafood is imported, leaving huge areas of opportunity for domestic production

Corn-based feed is an economical and sustainable option compared to traditional fish meal

Aquaculture is the fastest-growing food sector in the world

Over half of the seafood consumed worldwide comes from aquaculture

Top Aquaculture Exporters:

China

Indonesia

India

Animal Ag Facts - Sources

CORN & Aquaculture

<https://pixabay.com/vectors/fish-black-fishing-silhouette-161320/>

<http://www.worldofcorn.com/#us-corn-production>

http://www.oceanhealthindex.org/news/StoriesAmazing\_Aquaculture\_Facts

<https://www.afia.org/feedfacts/feed-industry-stats/animal-food-consumption/>

<https://www.tilapia-farming.com/resources/u-s-import-export-trends/>

