

National Farm Safety and Health Week 2026

FREE WEBINARS

MONDAY, SEPT. 21 – EQUIPMENT AND RURAL ROADWAY SAFETY

September
21

- 11 AM - 12 PM CT: Pathways to Progress: Safer Routes, Stronger Communities
- 1 PM - 2 PM CT: These Shared Roads: Using Stories in Rural Roadway Safety Education

TUESDAY, SEPT. 22 – HEALTH AND WELLNESS

September
22

- 11 AM - 12:30 PM CT: CALM Conversations on Access to Lethal Means
- 1 PM - 2 PM CT: Noise in Agriculture: An Overlooked Occupational Hazard
- 3 PM - 4 PM CT: The Cost of Fatigue in Agriculture: Practical Solutions to Protect Workers and Increase Productivity

DIGITAL BADGE:

Individuals attending at least three of the NFSHW webinars will earn a NFSHW Champion digital badge!

SPANISH INTERPRETATION:

Live Spanish interpretation will be available for all webinars.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 23 – GENERATIONS OF FARMING

September
23

- 11 AM - 12 PM CT: Telling the Story: Using Personal Experiences to Strengthen Farm Safety and Well-Being
- 1 PM - 2 PM CT: Practical Solutions for Burnout in Farm Families: Supporting Women Farmers, the Sandwich Generation, and Grandparents Raising Children

CONTINUING EDUCATION:

The University of Cincinnati, Dept. of Environmental and Public Health Sciences, Education and Research Center offers 1.0 contact hour for each webinar during National Farm Safety and Health Week. Learn more...

THURSDAY, SEPT. 24 – CONFINED SPACES

September
24

- 11 AM - 12 PM CT: Confined Space Safety in Agriculture
- 1 PM - 2 PM CT: Increasing Awareness for Confined Space Safety
- 3 PM - 4 PM CT: More than FEMA: Building True Rural Disaster Resilience

REGISTRATION

Scan the QR code or visit:
agrisafe.org/nfshw

AGRISAFE.ORG

FRIDAY, SEPT. 25 – CANCER PREVENTION

September
25

- 11 AM - 12 PM CT: Boots, Bales, Biopsies: Women's Health on the Farm
- 1 PM - 2 PM CT: Cancer Knowledge, Exposure Beliefs, and Prevention Behaviors: Insights from Iowa's Agricultural Communities

SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR NFSHW SPONSORS AND PARTNERS:

